Lyon mistook Mrs. Duckworth for a young woman of the streets whom he had ordered home the night before. When he saw Mrs. Duckworth yesterday afternoon he accosted her in an improjer manner and did not discover his mistake until some time later. Mrs. Duckworth is the mother of three children and a highly respectable young woman. She went home in tears and told her husband. The latter lost no time in calling upon Chief Pitt and W. Kelley of Mansfield, "I was in poor health for suffering from kidney and louble, and spent considerable writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble, and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining any marked beneft, but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and I desire to add my restimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Water Bonds Voted by This Margin With Sewer Bonds Following By a Smaller Lead.

With a total vote of 5,547, which, small as it is, is large for a bond election, the city fathers may now go ahead to issue bonds to the amount of $600,000 and offer them to the highest bidders.

The water bonds received 3,024 votes and the sewer bonds 2,937 votes, with 2,523 votes against the water bonds and 2.587 votes against the sewer bonds This left the bonds a majority of 501 for the water, and 350 for the sewer, a number of votes equal to only a small portion of those cast at a single polling place in an ordinary election.

The bonds lost only in the Third ward. They carried in the others with a small majority in the Fourth. VOTE IN DETAIL.

lit boasts—a baby elephant. Baby Bunting came into the world on March 4 at the circus winter quarters at Bridgeport, Conn., and is the fourth elephant born in the United States. He is the smallest elephant ever placed on exhibition and from the circus man's standpoint as a curiosity he is worth his weight in precious metals. The little fellow knows neither father nor mother, although both are within a short distance of him all of the time. Judy, his mother, is an Indian elephant, and showed so little concern for her infant at his birth that the baby was immediately taken away from her. This bothered her less than it did Mandarin, the little fellow's father, who lustily bellows to his bulky kid every time he sees him. Just now the baby is interested only in Andreas, the animal trainer, who is mother, father, and nurse to him. Andreas never leaves the little elephant night or day, and looks after him with all the care and solicitude that a woman would look after her child. The large vote is accounted for by the fact that so many voters deeply distrust the administration in power and feared to give into its hands a fund of this size just before an election sea-son when every opportunity would be offered for its expenditure in the cam-paign.
